The Siblu Village shall be entitled to demand copies of the same.

3.2 Obligatory information

The number of persons occupying a given accommodation may not exceed the maximum allowed capacity. This capacity quota will vary depending on the particular accommodation.

As with an individual, legal entities wishing to book a stay must refer to Siblu the following information in particular :

3.3 Payment terms

3.3.1 Booking made more than 4 months (120 days) before the start of the stay Any booking request made more than 4 months before the start of the stay must be accompanied by the payment of a deposit which is equal to 40% of the amount due for said booking. 3.3.2 Booking made between 4 months (120 days) and 4 weeks (28 days) before the start of the stay Any booking request made between 4 months and 4 weeks before the start of the stay must be accompanied by the payment of a deposit which is equal to 60% of the amount due for said booking. ### 3.4 Resale – Exchange

A booking cannot be exchanged, nor resold, nor transferred to a third party, in any way.

3.5 Special requests

The Client acknowledges that a booking made is in line with their needs and expectations. However, during such a booking, the Client can put forth special requests. The Client shall commit to expressly informing Siblu, in writing, of any information of decisive importance in relation to the content of the contract (as per article 1112-1 of the Civil Code), and in particular any specific request related to their booking, so that their request can be taken into account.

Even if Siblu devotes itself to giving such requests special attention, it cannot guarantee that it will satisfy them. In addition, if a request has not been expressly accepted by Siblu, it must be considered as having been refused.

3.6 Booking of standard or specific accommodation

During their booking, and subject to availability, the Client has the choice between the following :

- A standard accommodation whose location is not determined on the day of the booking (according to one of the ranges offered).

The various ranges differ, in particular, depending on the size of the accommodation and its capacity (for more information on the different ranges, the Client can view the link <https://siblu.ie/choose-your-accommodation>).

The Client's definitive location will be attributed to them and communicated later, at the latest on the day of their arrival.

- A specific accommodation chosen from what is available, against the payment of a supplement, the amount of which is established based on the current price.

In the event that the accommodation chosen by the Client is no longer available after they have made their booking, the provisions of article 6.2 will apply. In the event of force majeure circumstances or any unforeseeable and insurmountable circumstances imposed by a third party, the provisions of article 14 shall apply.

3.7 Information and prices

The updated prices are available on the website www.siblu.ie or via a simple phonecall made to the following number : 01 526 8658. Siblu cannot be held responsible for information not confirmed in writing after the definitive invoice has been sent. Except in the event of a booking made with an accommodation whose equipment has been expressly selected by the Client, the equipment of an accommodation may vary from one model to another, and from one Siblu Village to another. Certain models can be recategorised.

3.8 Publication of prices

The prices related to the booking of the stay include all taxes and match the rates valid on the day of the booking by the Client. Prices can be changed without notice, including during the season. In any case, the Client shall only be bound by the price in force at the time when he has made his booking.

Siblu reserves the right to pass onto the Client any change to the VAT rate that may enter into force during the invoicing. Likewise, any tax or similar duty related to the enjoyment of the accommodation / the occupation of a camping pitch, and any rate hike, shall be borne by the Client and re-invoiced to them, even if Siblu is the legal debtor

Reminder : once a booking has been accepted by Siblu, the contract is fixed and definitive, and it can no longer be changed. With this, even if the Client enjoys an offer which expressly guarantees them the "best price", the Client may not then, on principle, take advantage of a better rate (whether or not it is linked to a special offer) referred to them by Siblu for an accommodation which is identical or similar in nature in the same Siblu Village, during the same booking period (whether before or after their booking).

3.9 Price composition

3.9.1 - The price fixed at the time of the booking includes exclusively the following : - the location of the accommodation place or the camping pitch; - water and gas consumption (except in the case of camping-caravanning) and electricity; - the Fun Pass for all persons acknowledged in a booked stay (in accordance with the booking made) allows, in particular, access to aquatic complexes and entertainment and sporting activities offered by the selected Siblu Village at no extra charge; - registration with children's clubs (if there are any); - any options subscribed during the booking; - the "Freedom Guarantee".

3.9.2 - The price fixed at the time of the booking in particular does not include the following :

- surcharges linked to optional paid activities;
- cleaning during and at the end of the stay;
- bed linen and toiletries;
- baby equipment;

- the administrative fee of 15 euros.

The tourist tax price is, on principle, not included in the payment amount. It is collected on behalf of the municipality or the local community. However, depending on the Siblu Village selected by the Client, it may be possible to pay the price of the stay at the time of the payment of the booking price. Failing this, it must be paid on site on the day of arrival, before the accommodation keys are handed over.

3.10 Reduction code

If the Client enjoys a "reduction code", it must be presented at the time of the payment of the booking, in the tab provided for this purpose. Any presentation of it subsequent to the payment of the booking shall be null and void.

3.11 Obvious pricing error

During the formation of the contract or a booking request, in the event that the Client books or would like to book a stay for which a given stated price is clearly incorrect (in particular, as a result of a technical error), the price can be considered unrealistic compared to the real value of the stay, and Siblu may avail itself of the following:

- either a legitimate reason (as per article L121-11 of the Consumer Code) which allows them to refuse the made booking request ;
- or the termination of the contract as per the provisions of article 1169 of the Civil Code.

In all cases, Siblu shall commit to reimbursing the Client in full, including the deposit.

However, the Client will be able to ask Siblu to maintain the booking that they have made subject to the condition of paying the balance that corresponds to the true price which should have been applied during the booking.

An estimate of an obviously incorrect price shall be established bearing the following things in particular in mind:

the reserved period (during the "low season" the prices are less expensive than they are in the "high season", which is the July/August period), the date on which the booking is made the localisation of the Siblu Village and its appeal, and acknowledgement of the fact that, generally, Siblu Villages are 4 star top of the line campsites (including swimming pools, children's clubs and entertainment)

Special case with cumulative discounts and/or special offers

It is stated that, except as expressly provided, discount offers on principle cannot be combined, neither with each other nor with special offers which the Client may enjoy.

4 - PAYMENT METHODS

4.1 Renting accommodation

Following Siblu's definitive acceptance of the booking request, a definitive invoice featuring the date of the acceptance shall be immediately addressed to the Client by e-mail or by post on request. ### 4.2 Renting a campsite spot

Payments will be made in Euros (€). Invoices will be printed in English.

4.3 Default of payment

If the Client fails to pay all of the remaining balance within the fixed conditions stipulated above (articles 3.3, 4.1 and/or 4.2) Siblu reserves the right to consider that the booking has been cancelled by the Client, which will demand the application of the rules outlined in article 7.

4.4 Accepted payment methods

The settlement of the first payment of a booking can only be made by Bank Card (Visa/Eurocard/Mastercard) or from a PayPal account.

The Client's bank card shall be debited directly after the payment, for the existing contractually owed amount at the time of the transaction, unless an installment payment option has been offered and accepted by the Client.

6 - BOOKING CHANGES AND FREEDOM GUARANTEE

6.1 Changes at the request of the Client

6.1.1 Change request dated more than 6 weeks prior to the date of the start of the stay In principle, once the booking request has been checked by Siblu, the contract is fixed and definitive, and it is no longer possible to change it.

However, when making a booking with Siblu, the Client is granted the Freedom Guarantee, which grants them the right to make a single booking change request at no additional cost - be it about the destination, date, type of accommodation or site, subject to the following :

- that it be done more than 6 weeks prior to the start of the stay,
- that the duration period of the stay not be reduced,
- that what Siblu is able to provide be duly considered on the date of the change request.

Any change request must be announced by written mail by the Client.

The changes shall not be acknowledged as accepted by Siblu until after the Client has been sent a written confirmation of any such change. For all change requests in addition to the one granted under the Freedom Guarantee, Siblu may look at the possibility of granting them in line with what it is available to provide and grant under them (if anything) in exchange for a booking fee of 35 € (thirty-five Euros).

If the amount for the changed stay period should be elevated, the Client will be liable for the difference.

6.1.2 Change request made less than 6 weeks prior to the start of the stay Within the period of 6 weeks prior to the start date of the stay, the Client can no longer make any changes.

6.2 Changes to accommodation beyond the control of Siblu

In the event that Siblu is forced to change the accommodation for reasons beyond its control (e.g.: imperative accommodation maintenance for security reasons) prior to the start of the stay or the day of the Client's arrival, Siblu shall commit to providing the Client with a justification and to offering them (subject to availability) a quality stay and similar or equivalent equipment.

The Client shall not be required to pay any supplement. Siblu shall commit to reimbursing the price difference to the Client in the event that the substituted stay is of a lower value, along with any supplementary costs related to the choice of a particular leisure accommodation or camping pitch.

In the case of refusal, the Client will be entitled to cancel their booking free of charge, and Siblu shall undertake to reimburse all sums paid.

7 - CANCELLATION BY THE CLIENT

7.1 Procedure in the event of a cancellation by the Client

For the purpose of determining on what date the request for termination becomes effective, the postmark shall be definitive.

- Siblu shall retain an amount equivalent to 30% of the total booking amount.

8 - CANCELLATION BY SIBLU

Outside of circumstances related to a force majeure event or any unforeseeable and insurmountable circumstances brought on by a third party (acknowledged as such as per the provisions of article 14), in the event that Siblu finds itself having to terminate a booking while being unable to offer the Client a similar or equivalent alternative solution for the period in question, it shall commit to offering the Client (subject to availability) the choice between the following :

- another stay arrangement of equal length across another period of time, OR
- the return of all payments already made by the Client, along with a compensation amount equal to the sum that the Client would have borne if they had made the cancellation (articles 7.3 and 7.4)

These provisions will not in any way preclude the conclusion of an amicable agreement the purpose of which is the Client's acceptance of an alternative stay offered by Siblu.

9 - GUARANTEE DEPOSITS

9.1 Amount of the guarantee deposit and operation

The Client shall commit to paying a guarantee deposit directly with Siblu on the day of arrival and before the handing over of the keys.

The guarantee deposit paid by the Client will be a total amount of 250€ (two hundred and fifty Euros), broken down as follows :

- 80€ (eighty Euros), to cover cleaning costs or, if the accommodation is returned late, when leaving the premises (80€), in particular with regard to article 9.5
- the loss of items as outlined in the inventory or any material damage that occurs during the Client's stay which is in the amount of the value for the repairs or replacement of such items, in particular as per article 9.6

All or part of the guarantee deposit may be retained by Siblu depending on the state of the accommodation when it is returned by the Client, and the particulars of the inspection reports carried out in the presence of both parties (if these have been drafted by the parties). In addition, retention of the guarantee deposit shall not exclude any additional compensation in the event that the expenses are greater than this amount.

If no inventory has been drawn up, with the Client not drawing attention to any issues to Siblu in writing (with the attachment of any useful document and, in particular, photos) within 48 hours of their arrival at the premises, a situation of good condition shall be presumed as per the provisions of article 1731 of the Civil Code. With this it will be presumed that the Client has received the accommodation in a good condition, and must leave it in the same state when leaving the premises.

In the absence of an exit inventory, noting any possible damage (including cleaning fees or any missing items), Siblu shall commit to providing anything constituting proof which justifies withholding of the guarantee deposit (in particular: photos).

If the Client has paid their guarantee deposit by cheque, Siblu shall destroy it within the 15 days following the Client's departure, provided that Siblu has announced no defects in terms of cleaning, damage or loss.

9.2 Client's obligations

The Client shall commit to occupying and using in a reasonable manner the accommodation and its equipment and/or the place rented to them, and to returning them in a proper state when leaving them at the end of their stay.

At the end of their stay, the Client must do the following :

9.3 Subscription to the "end-of-stay cleaning" option

By subscribing to the "end of stay cleaning" option, the Client is relieved of the obligation to clean floors, and to clean the bathroom, the shower, the windows, the WC facilities, the refrigerator and the microwave, as well as the garden area and the barbecue. This obligation shall be borne by Siblu.

If the Client wishes to subscribe to it, this option shall be invoiced at the rate of 130€ for each booking made before the start of the stay.

During their stay, the Client can continue to subscribe to it by referring to the reception of the Siblu Village in question a maximum of 48 hours prior to the end of the stay. With this, said option shall be invoiced at a price of 155€, taking into account the organisational repercussions for the Siblu Village, in particular with regard to necessary personnel resources.

9.4 Deductions from the share of a guarantee deposit - cleaning

The Client is informed that certain facilities, fittings, services or entertainment arrangements are accessible only in the high season. The services of Siblu, and in particular the sports and leisure equipment and common facilities, shall be available during the opening hours displayed at the welcome office of the Siblu Village.
